

THE CITY

OPENING AND CLOSING OF THE
MAYN-FEBRUARY 16th-1914.

Table with 2 columns: Time, Location. Rows include First Northern, Second Northern, First Washington and Southern, etc.

Office Hours.
From 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sundays, 7 a. m. to 12 m.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Table with 2 columns: Line, Time. Rows include Nashville and Decatur Railroad, Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, etc.

GOV. CHARLES J. JENKINS, of Georgia, has been elected one of the Trustees of the University of the South.

There are twenty-two hundred children in Atlanta who attend Sunday school. This speaks well for the moral character of the State.

The grand musical entertainment, to be given by the pupils of Prof. Weber, comes off to-morrow night, instead of to-night as erroneously reported.

STRAWBERRIES were plentiful in market yesterday and were selling at reduced prices. But they were not snapped up as in days of yore when money was more abundant.

COMPLIMENT TO ADMIRAL SEMMES.—At the First Baptist Church, at Memphis, the ladies voted a chain to the editor who commended their admiration. Admiral Semmes received the chain.

An extensive auction sale of drygoods, boots, shoes, clothing, etc., extending over three days, commences at two o'clock, at No. 30, North College street, by Achey, O'Connell & Co. See advertisement.

DR. W. H. MEDGERS, the Conservative candidate for the State Senate forutherford county, was in the city yesterday. His friends express the greatest confidence that he will be successful before the people, as his ability, popularity and loyalty are all unquestionable.

A GENERAL ASSORTMENT of desirable Drygoods at reduced prices are offered by Pique & Manier, 62 North Market.

The Lawrence Radicals held a convention today to appoint delegates to the Congressional Convention, which meets to-morrow in this city.

Lawrence made a speech at a meeting in Lebanon a few days ago, and delegates favoring his nomination were appointed.

RECORDERS COURT, May 14.—Molly Huddleston, disorderly, $24.10 and costs. Jo. Williams, disorderly, $50 and costs. Wm. Russell, disorderly, $50 and costs. M. J. Johnson, disorderly, $50 and costs. Ann Huddleston, disorderly, $25 and costs.

A FINE assortment of Plantation Goods at Pique & Manier, 62 North Market.

The concert by the pupils of Prof. Weber at the New Theatre comes off on Thursday, and not this evening, as was erroneously printed in our issue of Sunday.

The relatives and friends of the pupils will please take note. A rich musical treat is in store for the favored few invited, as the Professor's pupils, we learn, embrace many of the most gifted and talented young ladies of our city.

A NURSE.—There is a little beggar girl in this city who is ever upon the streets begging, to the annoyance of everybody. It is said that her mother has grown so rich by the charities given to this little girl. It is also said her mother requires her to bring home at night a certain amount of money, and if she fails to do so, she will be whipped. If these facts are true, the police should look after such a character.

RAILROAD MEETING.—This evening at 4 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce, Hon. Horace Maynard, Judge Whitworth and others, will address the merchants and citizens of Nashville on the new points of interest recently developed in regard to the Tennessee and Pacific railroad. Fine accommodations are offered in the Chamber of Commerce, and it is urgently requested that the meeting may be full.

For a handsome Cigarette or Shetland Shawl go to Pique & Manier, 62 North Market.

STRAWBERRY and ICE CREAM FESTIVAL.—The ladies connected with the Cherry Street (South Nashville) Baptist Church will give a Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival, for the benefit of the church, on Thursday evening next, May 14, 1897, at the church. Admission twenty cents. This promises to be a very pleasant and interesting affair, and we hope the ladies will be liberally patronized.

THE SCULPTURE SPRING.—The sulphur spring of this city, which is regarded as having fine medicinal qualities, is only accessible by footpaths. It is impossible, on account of the overflow, to ever make the springs pleasant or attractive, but if surrounding the source of the stream is high enough, the water might be conducted in pipes to some pleasant place accessible to all, and of great value to those who wish to use the water. The company owning the spring might do well to think of this suggestion.

TO THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL.—Your attention is respectfully called to the fact that the arrival by express, of custom-made Boots and Shoes, at the Nashville Shoe Store, 74 North College street.

MECH. 26-5m. N. MORRISTERS.

Rev. J. M. BROWN, for a long time pastor of Trinity Church, New Orleans, has been unanimously elected Bishop of the Diocese of Georgia by the Episcopal convention now in session at Macon. He is the successor of the late Bishop Elliott, who was one of the most learned and eloquent divines in the South. To wear the armor of such a man as Bishop Elliott, the new Bishop must be a man of vast research, finished scholarship, and fine gifts of oratory. His friends claim that he has fine administrative abilities, and is an attractive public orator.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—Porter was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Jack Williams, charging him with assault and battery, and taken before Squire Mathews, who committed him for trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Betty Brown, arrested at the instance of Joseph Foster, was bound over in the sum of $500 to keep the peace.

Betty had been charged by Foster with maliciously cutting down a tree.

A LARGE number of delegates to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which assembles in Memphis to-morrow, the 16th inst., passed through this city yesterday.

This promises to be one of the most interesting sessions of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church that have ever convened, and the delegates that we have seen all feel the great responsibility that rests upon them, and feel confident that they will be equal to the great emergency.

The graves of the Confederate dead at Atlanta were appropriately decorated on the 10th inst. The 10th was selected as the anniversary of Stonewall Jackson's death, and is for two reasons a more suitable day than the 26th of April. First, there is no connection with the 26th, as it was that day when the Confederate flag was hoisted, and on that day in the north of the late Confederate States, it is impossible to get flowers sufficient to properly decorate the graves of our dead.

One of the most unique and attractive marriages we have seen take place in Dr. Baird's church, last night, between Dr. R. R. Freeman and Miss Alice McQuiddy.

The bride and groom knelt and joined hands from opposite sides of a table, in the middle of the altar, on which was an open bible covered with a wreath of flowers. A beautiful pyramid of flowers was suspended over the altar, and from the ceiling a shower of confetti fell.

The ceremony was simple, but impressive. The audience was large and elegant, and everything "went merry as a marriage bell."

May the undying flowers of love and trust shed their aroma along the path of their married life.

If you want cheap Bleached Domestic go to Pique & Manier's 62 North Market.

OFFICIAL INSTRUMENT.—It requires no argument to convince any person of the necessity of preserving the weight, or when it fails, to secure means whereby the right can be improved. Many persons of defective vision have been materially aided by Dr. M. Bernhardt, of Berlin, Prussia, in his new method of curing eye troubles. In two hours a cure for blotting, and many other gentlemen of our city. The Doctor will stay but a short time longer, and all who would improve their eyesight should call on him and see his American crystal spectacles, which are said to be the best artificial aid to the human vision ever invented.

COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, Hon. C. F. THOMAS, MAY 14.—R. W. Pritchett was admitted as attorney.

A. Appleton & Co. vs. Book Agents M. E. Church South, dismissed at defendant's wish. C. J. PANSKY, Comptroller.

E. H. Butler & Co. vs. Book Agents M. E. Church South, dismissed at defendant's wish.

American Bible Society vs. Book Agents M. E. Church South, dismissed at defendant's wish.

United States vs. Geo. A. Diekel, conducting business of rectifying liquors without license. Bound over in the sum of $1000 for appearance at October term.

United States vs. seventy-three barrels whiskey. C. J. PANSKY, Comptroller.

CHEAP DISINFECTANT.—The following recipe is given for a cheap disinfectant by an army surgeon:

One pound of chloride of lime.
One pint of sal. soda.
One gallon of water.

First dissolve the chloride of lime in the water, and stir it three or four times in twenty-four hours. When settled, pour the water into a bucket. Then dissolve the sal. soda in a pint of boiling water, and when dissolved pour it into the chloride of lime water and stir it well. In two hours it is ready for bottling. No family should be without it. As a wash for the mouth with lead teeth it has no equal, when mixed with two-thirds of water, and as a wash for the whole body it is delightful. For corns and bunions, steep for three minutes.

A GOOD THING.—A flying postal line has been opened on the Memphis and Charleston railroad under the direction of a special agent of the Postoffice Department. The Post says general agents or postal clerks are constantly engaged upon the train sorting and delivering mail pieces later, in case of delay, than for this purpose, and it is understood that Colonel Tate, President of the road, intends to build four entirely new cars for the postal service, and to have them built by the North or South. Mail matter from Memphis, New Orleans, and the entire South, for Washington and the East, now suffers no delay by distribution, but travels as fast as passengers can. Agents will be placed next week upon the route from Chattanooga to Augusta, and, as far as possible, upon other routes.

A CHIEF ASSORTMENT of Miscellaneous Modins and Goggles, at reduced prices, just received at Pique & Manier's 62 North Market.

MECH. 26-5m. N. MORRISTERS.

Wanted.—The People's Bank, corner Union and Cherry Streets, will pay ninety-five cents for Tennessee Coupons due July 1, 1897.

PLANTERS' Bank Notes.—Redeemed at par. B. WEAVER, Cashier.

OUR CHURCH IMPROVEMENT.—During the war, most of our city churches were used by the military authorities for hospital purposes. The work of restoration, though slow for want of means, is being gradually and effectively accomplished. Among them the First (Summer Street) Baptist Church, so long under the pastoral charge of the distinguished Dr. Howell, was left in a deplorable state; but we are glad to see that it has undergone a complete restoration, and is now a beautiful and attractive place of worship. A MATCH GAME AT BILLIARDS.—A friendly game of billiards was played last night at the extensive rooms of Garvin & Berthel, Cherry street, between Mr. Wm. A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—Nashville, TENN., May 14.—We, the foreman and composers recently employed at the Nashville Banner, deem it but justice to our honor and integrity, that we place ourselves right before this community—several of us having lived here for the greater portion of our lives, and we wish only to make a plain statement of the facts, which are as follows:

On Monday morning we repaired to the Banner office to commence our work, when we were summoned into the editorial room by one of the proprietors, and there, without any explanation, we were informed that our services were no longer required, and that we were to leave the office at once. We were then informed that we were to leave the office at once, and that we were to leave the office at once.

THE EIGHTH CONVENTION IN Chicago on the 1st of May cost $25,000, forty thousand dollars were the total wages of the rioters. The Tribune estimates that the rioters have cost over five hundred thousand dollars, nearly one half of which came out of the pockets of the laboring classes. The enterprise has failed, notwithstanding the great efforts made to make it a success. The Mayor notified the rioters that the bayonet will be used to keep the peace, if necessary.
